Relay races will be the distinctive feature. First in the matter of attractiveness will come the banner race of the evening between Princeton and Georgetown. This will be the first appearance of the sons of Nassau on a Southern track, and a large delegation of resident alumni will be on hand. The victory of the Blue and Gray team at New York on Tuesday caused the Georgetown undergraduates to place great confidence in their men.

Cornell and Columbia, the arch rivals of New York, will clash in the relaysinst previous to the Georgetown-Princeton event. Both the Ithacans and Gothamites have formidable quartets this year and among the Columbia runners is Metzenthin, the fameus quarterback.

George Washington will make its advent as an aspirant for field and track honors and in the relay will be pitted against Western Maryland. Last fall the Marylanders were the only players, with the exception of Georgetown, to defeat the Buff and Blue on the gridiron and tonight will be Washington's opportunity to get back.

Among the other relays of especial interest to Washingtonians will be Dumbarton Club vs. Potomac Boat Club; Georgetown Law vs. Maryland Athletics; Baltimore Tech vs. Western High; Georgetown Prep vs. Tome; Central High vs. Baltimore City College.

At 7:30 o'clock this evening the starter's pistol will send the first field of sprinters down the fifty-yard stretch at Convention Hall, and the seventh annual Georgetown indoor athletic carnival will be on.

For months Manager Graham, Assistant Manager Brennon, and a large corps of assistants have been working assiduously for the meet, and the present indications are that success will crown their efforts, for, judging from the entries, the affair will be one of the most successful ever held under the auspices of the Blue and Gray.

Prominent Visitors.

Yale, Princeton, Pennsylvania, Columbia, and numbers of other colleges, schools, and clubs will have participants in the games, and nearly every event on the program has a star of the first magnitude entered, while the quota of Washington athletes is larger than ever before.

Wrestling and Boxing Comment and Gossip

Gotch Easily Threw Jim Parr Twice in an Hour—Attells Barred for Faking—Who Is Managing Corrigan?

Frank Gotch in New York last night again demonstrated his wonderful ability as a wrestler by throwing Jim Parr, the English heavyweight champion in 18% minutes and 51 seconds and 19 min. the English heavyweight champion in 26 minutes and 50 seconds and 19 minutes and 21 seconds.

New York has not cared much for wrestling for several years because of the fakers who had queered the game, but Gotch has a reputatica for absolute squareness in all his matches, and the Gotham sports loosened up to see him. He had contracted to throw Parr twice in an hour and there was considerable betting on the proposition. Parr was known as a clever and skillful wrestler whose best trick was wriggling out of tight places, and for that reason he was backed to stall Gotch off for the hour.

As soon as the men appeared on the mat the New Yorkers realized that they had underestimated the nimbleness and agility of Gotch in forming their opinbut Gotch has a reputation for absolute had underestimated the nimbleness and agility of Gotch in forming their opinions of the offensive ability of Parr. The American champion showed that he was as agile and scientific as his opponent and handled his 190 pounds like a lightweight. The first fall was gained with a bar hold and the second with a crotch

Gotch is to meet Joe Grant at the Washington Light Infantry Armory to-night, and has agreed to throw Grant three times in an hour. It will be the first visit of the champion to this city, and his appearance is arousing great interest among all the lovers of the sport.

After throwing Parr last night Gotch innounced that he would stick to wresthing for the present, but that after he had cleaned up all the mat artists worthy of his attention he would probworthy of his attention he would probably go in for boxing, with an idea of challenging Jeffries for the heavy-weight title. The announcement was received with applause, whereupon Methuselah Tom Sharkey climbed through the ropes and challenged him to either box or wrestle. Gotch said he would give the matter much earnest consideration. Gotch's quickness and speed with both hands and feet have caused his possibilities as a boxer to be considered more seriously than they were at one time, and if he should go in for a few six-round bouts in Philadelphia and get away with them there might be a chance for him to do something in the way of going against Jeffries. Dan McLeod, in his day regarded as one of the best wrestlers of his weight, and former holder of the world's championship, has issued a challenge to meet either Jim Parr or Frank Gotch some time next month. Washington and Jefferson has severed athletic connections with Penn returned home, and they say that the West cannot compare with the East when it comes to rough tactics in the games. The Gophers feel that they received especially raw treatment when they played Dartmouth. Abe and Monte Attell, it is said, have been barred from boxing before the Boston clubs, because of the fight on Wednesday night before the Chelsea Club, in which Abe and Kid Goodman went fifteen rounds to a draw. Attell outpointed Goodman throughout, and clearly earned the decision, but the fight was called a draw. Who is the manager of Patsy Corrigan? Pat O'Connor looks wise and Jerry McCarthy talks wisely, while two or three others seem to have some sort or three others seem to have some sort of a say in the matter. When the problem is solved Corrigan will probably be matched with Tommy Ward, Ristie Leonard's protege.

It appears that the fight in which Tommy Lowe knocked out Corrigan was a unique way of settling a dispute between the O'Connor brothers, Pat and Johnny. They got to jawing about their respective abilities as judges of fighters and managers, and instead of coming to blows themselves, arranged the fight Johnny won when Corrigan went to sleep, and all is again serene.

Kid Henning, who has recovered from his recent illness, is after a match, and may go on with either Ward or Corrigan in the near future. A good fight for him would be with Eddle Lutz, of the Arsenal, and such a match will probably be arranged.

That match on Wednesday night, That match on Wednesday night, in which Mystery Brown threw Harvey Tyrell twice was one of the best seen in Washington for many days, and both boys deserve credit. Brown won because he was as strong as Tyrell and had more science. The defeat did the Weshington man no harm in any way Infact, it not only taught him a lesson, but quite a number of tricks about the mat game. The peculiar chin lock by which Brown gained the first fall was a surprise to Tyrrell, as were several other holds, which he is now studying. More matches of that sort will go far toward putting the game on a basis of permanent prosperity in Washington.

Jim Jeffords should get a job as a mo torman or sand shoveler, or something of that sort. He never was a fighter, and it is getting money under false pretenses to put him on.

How is it Young Peter Jackson is fighting much nowadays? If Jack O'Brien is hungering for a match with a really good man, Peter's address in Baltimore is easily obtainable.

BOWEL POISON.

Thousands of Men and Women Poisoned and Don't Know It.

HOW TO FIND OUT.

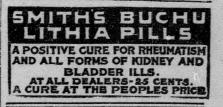

Bowel poison means blood tainted by foul secretions absorbed from the bowels. Here are the symptoms:

If your skin is disfigured by eruptions, humors, pimples, blotches, sores or eczema; if you itch and burn and your skin is scaly and rough; if you feel tired and worn out, your nerves weak, constipated, cross and depressed; if your head feels heavy and aching, your eyes blur and specks float across your vision; if you have coid feet and your hands get sweaty and sticky—if you have these dauger signals they point unerringly to bowel poison, impure blood, and show that your stomach, liver and bowels are not working right.

Smith's Pineapple and Butternut Pills are what you must have to make your bowels right; they will remove the impurities from your blood by toning up the liver and bowels so that they will perform their functions naturally and regulating. They cleanse and invigorate the blood by stimulating the sluggish liver and regulating the bowels by their gentle laxative action. They are a sure and unfailing cure for bowel poison in young or old.

Smith's Pineapple and Butternut Pills cure constipation, biliousness and headacae in one night, 25 cents, all dealers.
